May 4, 2015, Wilmington, DE – The Jewish Federation of Delaware has received three awards recognizing creativity and marketing excellence from the 2015 Hermes Creative Awards (HermesAwards.com), an international awards competition recognizing outstanding work while promoting the philanthropic nature of marketing and communications professionals.

Federation received five awards in the following categories;

Platinum Award in the Handbook Category for its 2015 Development Plan

Gold Award in the Annual Report Category for its 2013-2014 Report to the Community

Honorable Mention in the Postcard Category for its Men's Nite Out postcard invitation

Hermes Creative Awards is administered and judged by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals (amcpros.com). AMCP oversees awards and recognition programs, provides judges and rewards outstanding achievement and service to the profession.

"With over 6,000 entries from throughout the United States, Canada and several other countries, landing five awards among such a highly competitive playing field is a true testament to the dedication of our staff and lay leadership as well as our commitment to excellence," stated Seth J. Katzen, Chief Executive Officer of the Jewish Federation of Delaware.
