November 1, 2017, Wilmington, DE – The Jewish Federation of Delaware was named a Silver Award Winner in the 13th Annual Davey Awards for its 2016-2017 Report to the Community. With nearly 4,000 entries from across the US and around the world, the Davey Awards honors the finest creative work from the best small firms, agencies and companies worldwide.

The Davey Awards is judged and overseen by the Academy of Interactive and Visual Arts (AIVA), an invitation-only member-based organization of leading professionals from various disciplines of the visual arts dedicated to embracing progress and the evolving nature of traditional and interactive media. Entries are judged to evaluate distinction in creative work.

“The agencies awarded this season truly reflect the notion that small agencies produce big ideas. The work entered into this year’s Daveys portrays the smart approach to creativity that embodies the capabilities and talents of small firms from across the world” noted Derek Howard, Executive Director of the AIVA. He added “On behalf of the Davey Awards and our Academy, we want to applaud this year’s entrants for their dedication and commitment to their craft. We offer our congratulations once again to those selected as winners for the exceptional work they submitted.”

“Federation is honored to be recognized for our work among such a highly competitive field,” stated Seth J. Katzen, CEO of the Jewish Federation of Delaware. “Landing a Davey Award for our Report to the Community is a testament to the work and dedication of our staff and lay leadership who strive to make a difference every day. Our report effectively articulates Federation’s mission and vision in a compelling and thought-provoking manner.”

About The Davey Awards

The Davey Awards exclusively honor the “Davids” of creativity, the finest small firms, agencies and companies in the world. David defeated the giant Goliath with a big idea and a little rock – the sort of thing small firms do each year. The annual International Davey Awards honors the achievements of the “Creative Davids” who derive their strength from big ideas, rather than big budgets. The Davey Awards is the leading awards competition specifically for smaller firms, where firms compete with their peers to win the recognition they deserve.
