May 6, 2015, Wilmington, DE – The Jewish Federation of Delaware has received a coveted Four-Star Rating from Charity Navigator, the nation's largest and most-utilized evaluator of charities.

Charity Navigator rates charities by evaluating two broad areas of performance; Financial Health and Accountability & Transparency. These ratings show donors how efficiently a charity uses their support today, how well it has sustained its programs and services over time and their level of commitment to being accountable and transparent. Charity Navigator provides these ratings so that donors can make intelligent giving decisions, and so that the philanthropic community can be more effectively monitored.

Jewish Federation of Delaware is one of only five Four-Star Rated charities in Delaware.

In addition to the Four-Star Rating on Charity Navigator, Federation has also received the highest ratings in other industry evaluators, including:

GuideStar Exchange Gold Participant

GuideStar is the largest source of nonprofit information, connecting people and organizations with information on more than 1.8 million IRS-recognized nonprofits. For more information, go to: www.GuideStar.org

Great Nonprofits Top-Rated Nonprofit

GreatNonprofits is the leading developer of tools that allow people to find, review, and share information about great -- and perhaps not yet great -- nonprofits and charities. For more information, go to: www.GreatNonprofits.org “Receiving Charity Navigator’s Four-Star rating recognizes our financial health as well as our commitment to being a trusted and transparent organization,” stated Seth J. Katzen, Chief Executive Officer of the Jewish Federation of Delaware. “Being one of only five Delaware charities to receive this honor is a true testament to our dedicated leadership and staff.
