November 5, 2018, Wilmington, DE – The Jewish Federation of Delaware was named a Silver Award Winner in the 14th Annual Davey Awards for its 2017-2018 Gratitude Report to the Community. With nearly 4,000 entries from across the US and around the world, the Davey Awards honors the finest creative work from the best small firms, agencies and companies worldwide.

The Davey Awards is judged and overseen by the Academy of Interactive and Visual Arts (AIVA), an invitation-only member-based organization of leading professionals from various disciplines of the visual arts dedicated to embracing progress and the evolving nature of traditional and interactive media. Entries are judged to evaluate distinction in creative work.

“Federation is honored to be recognized for our work among such a highly competitive field,” stated Seth J. Katzen, CEO of the Jewish Federation of Delaware. “Landing a Davey Award for our Gratitude Report is a testament to the work and dedication of our staff and lay leadership who strive to make a difference every day. Our report effectively articulates Federation’s mission and reinforces how We Grow Stronger TOGETHER.”

About The Davey Awards

The Davey Awards exclusively honor the “Davids” of creativity, the finest small firms, agencies and companies in the world. The annual International Davey Awards honors the achievements of the “Creative Davids” who derive their strength from big ideas, rather than big budgets. The Davey Awards is the leading awards competition specifically for smaller firms, where firms compete with their peers to win the recognition they deserve.
